- The Fund is subject to concentration risk as a result of tracking the performance of a single geographical region (the PRC) and may likely be more volatile than a broad-based fund.
- The Fund is subject to risks relating to the RQFII regime, such as change of rules and regulations, default in execution or settlement of transaction by a PRC broker or the PRC Custodian and repatriation restrictions.
- The Fund is subject to risks associated with the Stock Connect, such as change of relevant rules and regulations, quota limitations, suspension of the Stock Connect programme.
- Investing in the PRC, involve greater political, tax, economic, foreign exchange, liquidity, legal and regulatory risks.
- If there is a suspension of the inter-counter transfer of units between counters, the unitholders will only be able to trade their units in the relevant counter on the SEHK. The market price on the SEHK of units traded in different counters may deviate significantly due to different factors, as such investors may pay more or receive less when buying units traded in HKD on the SEHK than in respect of units traded in RMB and vice versa.
- As the SSE and the SZSE may be open when units in the Fund are not priced, the value of the securities in Fund's portfolio may change on days when investors will not be able to purchase or sell the Fund's units. Differences in trading hours between the SSE and the SZSE, and the SEHK and A-Shares' trading bands may increase the level of premium/discount of the unit price to its NAV.
- The Fund is denominated in RMB. RMB is currently not freely convertible and is subject to exchange controls and restrictions. A non-RMB based investors in units are exposed to foreign exchange risk.
- The Fund is subject to securities lending transactions risks, including the risk that the borrower may fail to return the securities in a timely manner.
- Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Any distributions may result in an immediate reduction in the NAV per Unit of the Fund.
- The Fund is subject to tracking error risk.
- The Fund is not "actively managed" and therefore, when there is a decline in the Index, the Fund will also decrease in value.
- Generally, retail investors can only buy or sell units of the Fund on the SEHK. The trading price of the units on the SEHK is driven by market factors such as the demand and supply of the units. Therefore, the units may trade at a substantial premium or discount to the Fund's NAV.
