

A member of  MUFG
a global financial group

Application for Direct Debit with Bank of Ayudhya Accounts via @ccess Mobile Application

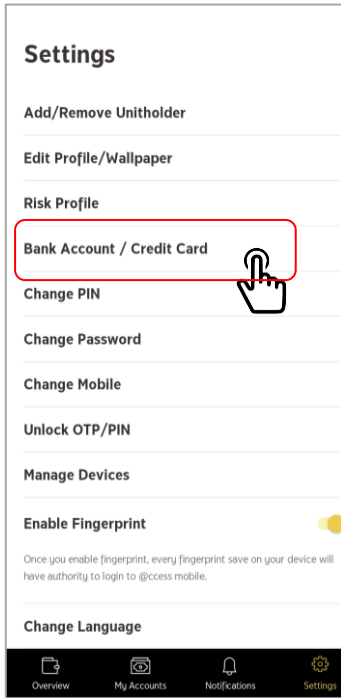

Terms and Conditions of Use of Service

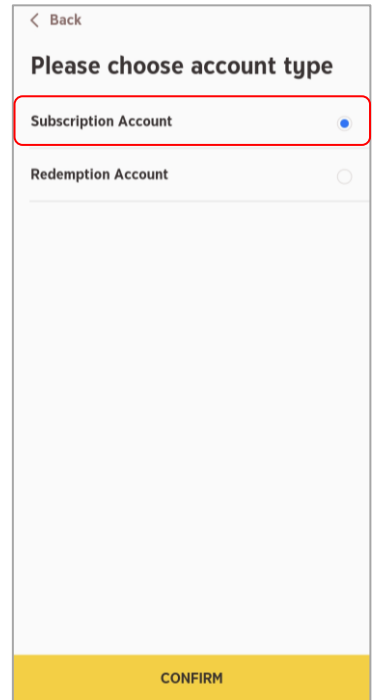

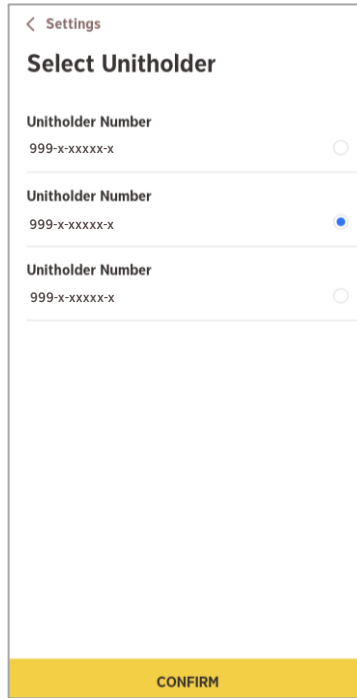

- Application for direct debit must be done via the channel of @ccess Mobile App only. The system will automatically link the service to Krungsri Mobile App (KMA). (Customer needs to have KMA app installed on the device and use it to confirm the application request.)
- The account applying for service will be used to deduct the subscription proceeds and receive the redemption proceeds.
- The service is applicable to single accounts of individual persons only.
- The account applying for service shall not be effective until the application is approved by the Registrar which will take about 1 - 2 business days from the application date.

Procedures for Applying for Direct Debit

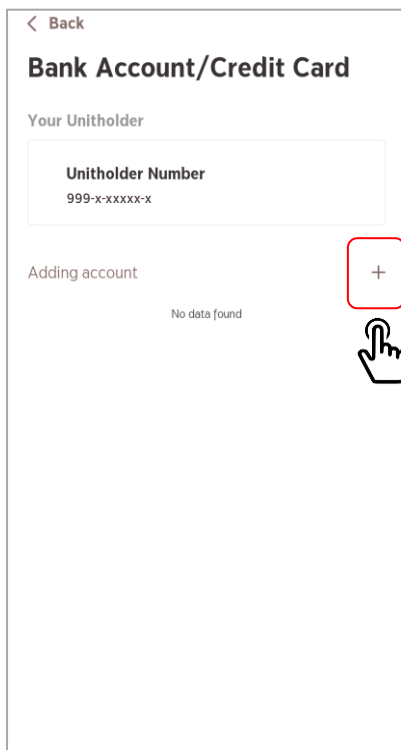

1. In the Settings Menu, select "Bank Account / Credit Card"

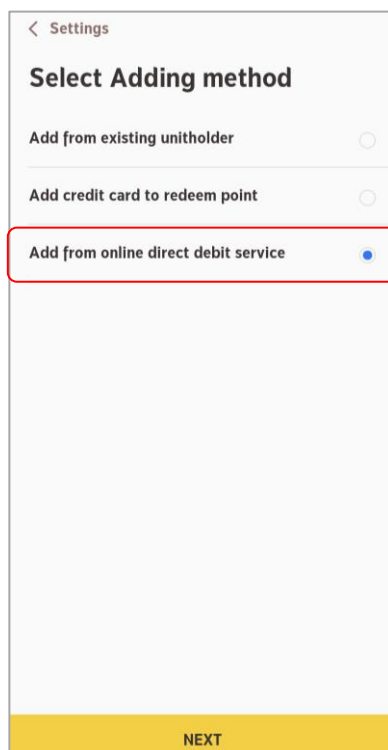

2. Select Unitholder Number 3. Select "Subscription Account"

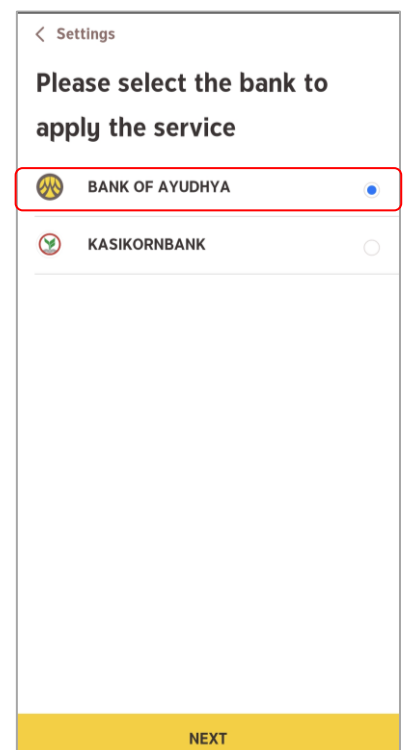

4. Select "+" to add account.

5. Select "Add from online direct debit service"

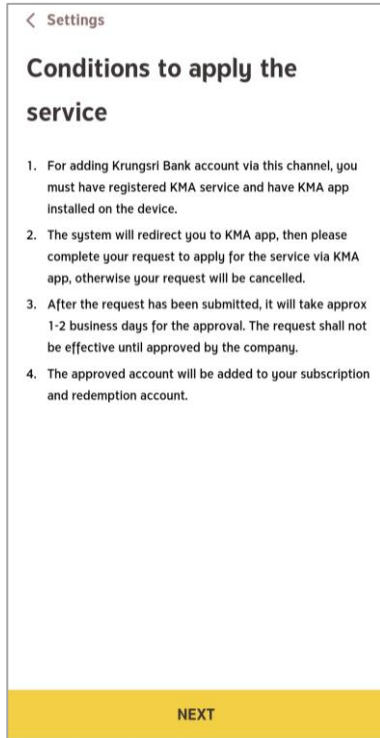

6. Select Bank of Ayudhya

Procedures for Applying for Direct Debit (continued)

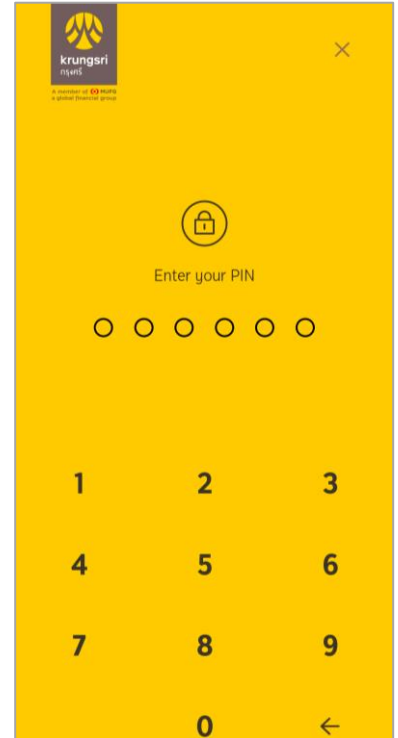

7. Read the service conditions and press "Next".

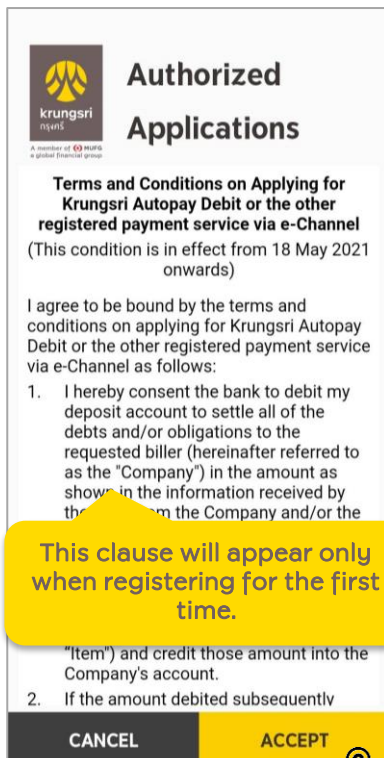

8. The system will link to KMA to proceed with the application request.

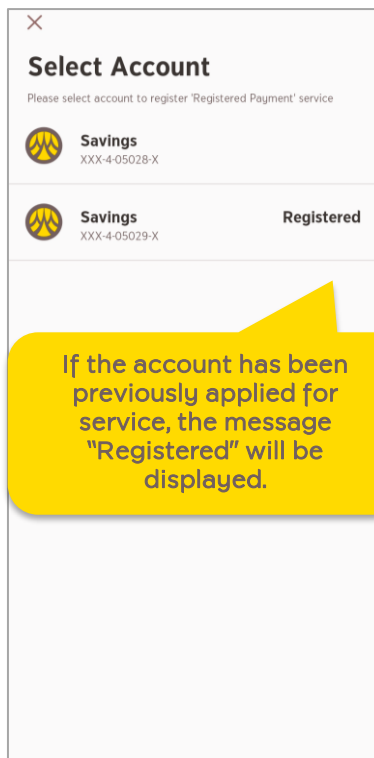

9. Specify the PIN used for accessing KMA.

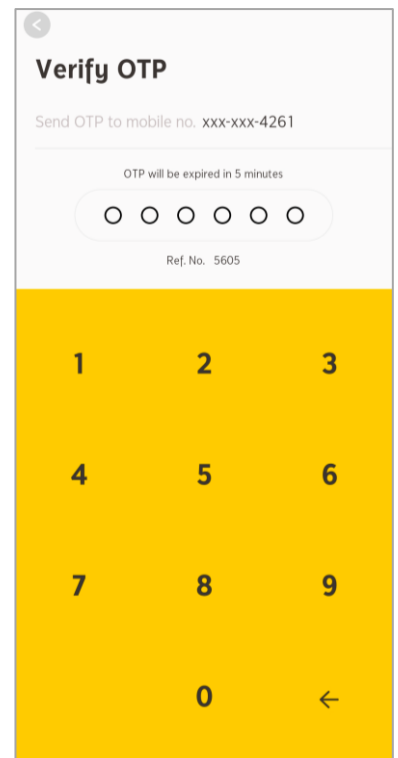

10. Accept the conditions of use of service via KMA.

11. Select the bank account you intend to apply for direct debit.

12. Confirm the OTP.

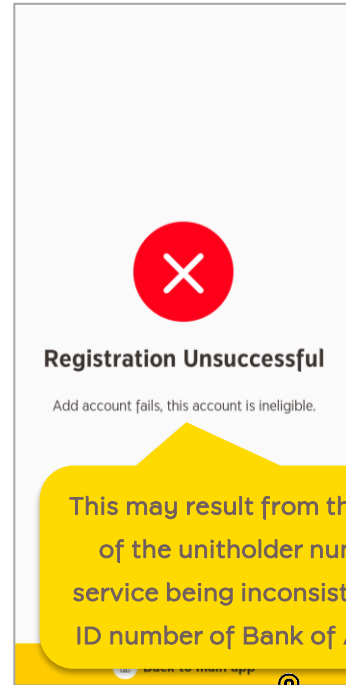

Procedures for Applying for Direct Debit (continued)

13. KMA system will notify the preliminary result of the application (such account shall be effective only after the Registrar has entered the information into the system), then select "Back to main app" to return to @ccess Mobile.

Successful Registration

Unsuccessful Registration

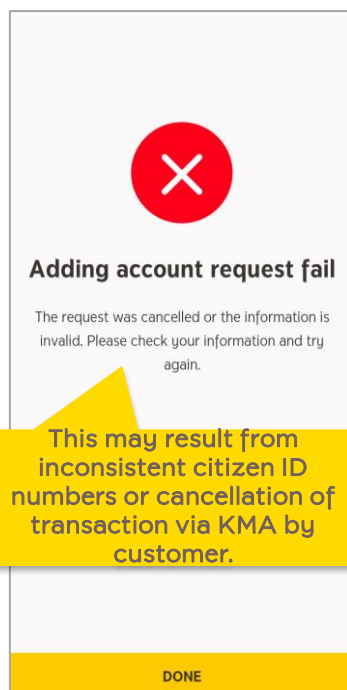

14. When returning to @ccess Mobile, the system will display the message of the application result again.

Successful registration via KMA

Unsuccessful registration

15. The account applying for service will remain in the list of accounts pending approval until the Registrar enters the information into the system (about 1 - 2 business days after the application date).

